

Feather Princesses Guild Meeting

February 11, 2026

Meeting was called to order by President Dorothy Johnson at 11:00.

Hostess: Princess Fazie Mohamed reported we had no visitors at this meeting.

Membership: Princesses Betty Jo Lecaroz and B.J. Weber report 26 members in attendance.

Treasurer: Princess Michelle Barry reported a total of $4790.00 in guild funds. The January sale of fabric benefited the guild $280. Next fabric sale at the May meeting.

Birthdays/Sunshine: Princess Vici Miller held the drawing for February. Winner for birthday basket was Princess Patti Cox. Guild currently has 10 members on the Sunshine and Shadows list.

Community Service: Princess Mary Moody collected donations. Food items and $118 donations to be delivered to St. John Missionary Baptist Church in Dade City by President Dorothy Johnson.

Fat Quarter Exchange was overseen by Princess Linda Woytisek. March will be any Green Fabric.

Healing Hearts: Princess Shirley Kasprzyk was given a healing heart for Princess Lois Bretzlaff.

Library: Princess Mary Ann Vathy stated any library books checked out would be for two months due to the Carol Clanton program in March.

Newsletter: Princess Michelle Barry would like all articles for the March Plume before February 27th.

2026 Lake Yale Retreat: Committee reviewed dates and fees. 8 members have registered.

Show-Offs: Members had several items to share. Princess Betty Jo Lecaroz had members of her quilt group display their projects and encouraged others to join them.

Program: Princesses Vici Miller, Trudy Flynn and Becky Gammons demonstrated different techniques for projects. Vice President Ritu Haldar distributed Supply List for Carol Clanton Class to be held on March 10. Space is still available for sign up for this class.

President's Report: President Dorothy Johnson quizzed members on Patriotic history. Review of Quilt Groups and projects with members encouraged to attend these groups. Discussion on Quilt shows in the area.

Door Prize Drawings: Princesses Betty Jo Lecaroz and B.J. Weber drew names and distributed prizes.

Meeting Adjourned by President Dorothy Johnson.